

union member. After retiring, she moved from Youngstown to Cleveland. She traveled extensively, frequenting Italy and Florida. She loved to dance, and her passion for dancing was contagious. She made friends wherever she went, and she never turned down an invitation to a party. Maggie was a staunch advocate for human rights and a political firebrand who remained firm in her convictions.

She is survived by her daughter Maura George (Bryce Kujat); son Michael George (Amber Pompeii); grandchildren Francis and Harriet; twin sister, Katie (Jim Armaline); five other sisters, Annie (Tom Carney), Elaine, Monica, Sue (Kim Korver), Mary Therese (Denise Reynolds); and seven brothers, Jim (Fiona Young), Tim (Mama Negrelli), Bill (Mary Mcatee), Bob (Michele Lepore-Hagan), Jack (Noreen O'Malley), Chris (Laureen McGarry), and Jeff (Marcia Egbert). She was also a beloved aunt to 27 nieces and nephews and 27 great nieces and great nephews.

I had the immense pleasure of knowing Maggie. I always loved seeing her at political or union events. She believed in the power of labor unions. She believed in the power of education. While she may be gone, her spirit lives on. She inspired us to use our lives to make a difference in people's lives. And we will always keep her memory close to our hearts.

TRIBUTE IN MEMORY OF CHISWELL LANGHORNE, JR.

HON. HAROLD ROGERS

OF KENTUCKY

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. ROGERS of Kentucky. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the late Chiswell D. Langhorne, Jr., in memory of his quiet support of Eastern Kentucky, where he made an invaluable impact in the lives of people living and working in the coalfields.

Although he was not a native Kentuckian, Mr. Langhorne shared our Appalachian roots from Lynchburg, Virginia. He graduated from the University of Virginia and the University of Virginia Law School. He also attended post graduate programs at Harvard and Sloan School at MIT. He was a trust officer at NS&T Bank for 15 years and maintained a successful law practice. Mr. Langhorne joined Kentucky River Coal Corporation's board in 1965, serving as an active board member, past chairman and as vice chairman, a role he held from 1983 until April 2018. He guided the company and its successor, Kentucky River Properties (KRP) through an expansion into Indiana, Illinois, West Virginia and western Kentucky. Mr. Langhorne had an innate passion for supporting job creation in Central Appalachia through the coal industry and silently invested in opportunities to improve life in the mountains. For example, he consistently insisted KRP contribute to local school systems to emphasize the importance on expanding educational opportunities in Appalachia.

Refusing personal accolades for his philanthropic spirit, Mr. Langhorne advocated for Kentucky River Properties to invest in our greatest resource—our people. In an unprecedented move from the coal industry in 2010, KRP donated $500,000 to the Operation UNITE Foundation, Eastern Kentucky's first non-profit anti-drug organization, to pay for substance abuse treatment vouchers to be distributed over the course of five years. The vouchers were awarded to low-income individuals in a four-county area in Eastern Kentucky who otherwise could not afford a residential treatment program. Thanks to his support, countless lives have been saved from potential drug overdose deaths and families have been reunited through recovery.

Mr. Langhorne's commitment to Eastern Kentucky through KRP has helped transform our region and pave a brighter path for future generations. My wife, Cynthia, and I send our heartfelt condolences to Mr. Langhorne's family and friends. We deeply appreciate the compassion he showed for fellow Appalachian families throughout his career.

CELEBRATING THE 110TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE WILLING
HELPERS HOME FOR WOMEN

HON. ELISE M. STEFANIK

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Ms. STEFANIK. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and recognize the Willing Helpers Home for Women on its 110th Anniversary.

The Willing Helpers Home for Women is a not-for-profit organization located in Johnstown, New York, that offers a comfortable home for women 60 years and older. Since it opened in November 1908 through the help of generous donors in Fulton County, the Willing Helpers Home has provided women with a supportive and compassionate first-class home that advocates security, independence, and comfort.

At the Willing Helpers Home, residents not only benefit from a number of professional services, such as medical supervision and exercise programs at their convenience, but they also enjoy many recreational activities, like teas and weekly bingo. By offering a full array of services, the Willing Helpers Home creates a holistic support system for the women.

On behalf of New York's 21st District, I want to congratulate the Willing Helpers Home for Women on its 110th anniversary, and thank its dedicated staff for their commitment to serving women in their community. The Willing Helpers Home has provided an important service to women, and I look forward to seeing its continued success in the years to come.

HONORING JEFF AND SUSAN KENT

HON. LUKE MESSER

OF INDIANA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. MESSER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today, on behalf of the entire 6th Congressional District of Indiana, to recognize Jeff and Susan Kent for their contributions to our state and their community.

The Kents were important business and civic leaders in Shelby County. And, with their daughters Caroline and Willa, they are very active in the local school community as well.

On a personal note, Jeff and Susan are great friends to my wife Jennifer and me. The Kents were among my earliest and most vocal supporters. I want to thank Jeff and Susan for their friendship and support of my work in Congress. I wish them continued success in all that God has planned for their family.

TRIBUTE TO ELLA MAE RECORD

HON. KEN CALVERT

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. CALVERT. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor and pay tribute to Ella Mae Record, who passed away last month in California. Ella Mae was the matriarch of the Record family in San Jacinto Valley. She will be deeply missed.

Ella Mae was born at home in Torrance, California, on January 18, 1929. Her family moved to the San Jacinto Valley on New Year's Day, 1937, where she enrolled in school. It was in school that she developed a love for music and sports. She was named the sports writer for the school paper, editor of the yearbook, and was elected student body president her senior year. Ella Mae's summers were spent working on the family ranch learning to drive cars, trucks, tractors and mules. She married Clayton Record, Jr. on August 21, 1948. They lived in San Luis Obispo while Clayton was enrolled at Cal Poly and began their family while living in a small trailer in "Vetville."

In 1952, they returned to the San Jacinto Valley where Clayton worked the family dairy and Ella Mae concentrated on raising the family. Her passion was golf which she began pursuing in 1960 at Gilman Hot Springs before becoming an active member of Soboba Springs. She was club champion at both and president of the Woman's Golf Association. She realized her dream of living on a golf course when she joined the Sunrise Country Club in Rancho Mirage where she finally got her hole-in-one. Ella Mae's other interests included photography, obtaining her pilot license, owning a quarter horse, jeeping in the riverbed and serving on several boards of important valley organizations. She was preceded in death by her husband, Clayton Record and her son Clayton "Claytie" Record. She is survived by her sons, Mike, Randy, and Keith; daughter, Nanci, 10 grandchildren, and 13 great grandchildren.

I extend my heartfelt condolences to the entire Record family, friends, and everyone fortunate enough to know Ella Mae. Although Ella Mae is gone, the many contributions she made to our community and family will have a lasting impact.

PERSONAL EXPLANATION

HON. BILL HUIZENGA

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, November 14, 2018

Mr. HUIZENGA. Mr. Speaker, I rise today regarding a missed vote. Had I been present for roll call vote number 417, H.R. 2615—the Gulf Islands National Seashore Land Exchange Act, I would have voted yay.
